Dear Dr. Baladerian,

I would like to offer my congratulations on your receipt of your recent award. It was a pleasure to meet you during the 2008 National Crime Victims Awareness Awards ceremony and to learn about the great strides you and your organization are making to forever insuring that crime victims' rights are respected and enforced. Thank you for your service and mainly all of your HARD WORK! The cause of crime victims and their families can be daunting and it is comforting to know that people like you exist across our country and lend your talents to helping those who have been harmed by crime.

I hope that we can remain in contact and I would be greatly interested to hear about how your efforts progress and your future success in this area of work. I wish you the best of luck in our continuing endeavors. Stay in touch and let's change the world!

Sincerely,

Kim K. Ogg

You Rock too!
